Child Labor Conference Interested in Advanced Legislation in This State.

tion in This State.

In an advance notice sent out by the National Child Labor Committee it is stated that the Virginia law whereby persons who, able to work, live in idleness upon earnings of minor children, are deemed vagrants, will come up for discussion at the annual session of the National 'Child Labor Conference. This body meets at Jacksonville, Fla., next month. Governor Mann has appointed the following delegates to represent Virginia: Howard T. Colvin, Alexandria; Dr. D. S. Freeman and J. B. Clinedinst, Richmond; Dr. Harry Heck, University of Virginia; Rev. J. E. Hicks, Danville, and Mrs. John H. Lewis, Lynchburg. The National Child Labor Committee, working with the Virginia branch of the organization, was largely responsible for securing the passage of the present child labor law of this State, and took an active part in the fight against the proposed, repeal of the tenhour law three years ago.

BRICK DWELLING, NO. 8 NORTH
TWENTY-FIFTH STREET.

In execution of a certain deed of trust, dated June 27, 1912, to the undersigned trustee, recorded in the clerk's office of Richmond Chancery Court, in D. B. 217-A. page 52, default having been made in the payment of one of the notes thereby secured, and being required so to do by the holder thereof, I will sell by public auction, on the premises, on Avenue and Bacon's Quarter Branch, just within the city limits, "Morgan" galloped up and came to a full stop. Crafton recognized him as one of the police mounts, and after a moment's wonderment, grabbed the bridal, the only piece of harness upon the animal, and had no trouble in leading him back to the stable, about half a mile away, "Morgan" was perfectly doelle and went to his stall without trying any more tricks.
